OLD PINEVILLE HOTEL, PINEVILLE, PA.
